keep your gloves on!

Zip! Zip! Hurry!
You don't need
To take your gloves
Off, to open that Pack of America's
Pre-loved cigarettes.
Even if you were Awful stiff as
You could zip open
That new
"Zip-Top" pack
Of Old Gold.
Smoother than you can Say Jack Robinson!
Just pull the Lark and ribbon... and Zip! Zip! Hurry!
You get
Fresh Old Gold
In a flash!
Double fresh
Because their choice
Dundee Whisky makes
An' double your fun
By... not one
But 2... packs in
One Cellophane.
And if you
Don't believe this Makes a difference,
Try a honey-smooth
Old Gold...
The cigarette with
The happy, relaxing
In the new
"ZIP-TOP" PACK

Now O.G.'s "ZIP-TOP" pack
Gives you FRESH Cigarettes in a FLASH!

ZIP!...
Simply all the work of that ribbon which is the proof of freshness.

IT'S OPEN!

Try it all, please. Now
America's Pre-loved Cigarettes

America's FOUR MOST Whiskies

"Taylortm" is Good Taste

Head of the Bourbon Family

Their Taste Spans 50 Years of World Thirst

World's fairs are nothing new in the life of these four whiskies. From all the fairs of the century they had already won a great and loyal following.

And they have held it to this very day, due to an excellence without equal or counterpart among the truly great whiskies of the world. They perpetuate the art of fine whiskey-making as it was practiced here eight hundred years in all those traditions of good and gracious living here when the republic was young.

Each is characterized by a rare and distinctive flavor of its own. All are now so modestly priced that you can enjoy the "Fourmost" without penalty to your purse.

LOOK AT THE HEAD
when Choosing his Christmas Shaver

ONLY THE Sunbeam SHAVEMASTER HAS THE FAMOUS "475" HEAD
Shaves Close as a straight-edge and Faster

TWO MODELS TO CHOOSE FROM BOTH WITH THE "475" HEAD

$7.95

$15.00

THE NEW AC MODEL SHAVEMASTER
Made exclusively for use as an alternating current

A series of previous workmanship and a continuing achievement of years of continuous development work in Sunbeam Laboratories. Has the famous "475" head that shaves with quick, close contact and a straight edge. Also has the new Sunbeam exclusive type AC motor, with hand and counter balanced mechanism that reduces vibration and makes shaving a pleasure. Big enough to provide a steady work plenty of reserve power—yet trim and compact for easy, convenient handling. Only comparison by actual test will reveal the superior performance of the new Sunbeam AC Shavemaster. Platinum-graphic prove the Shavemaster shaves close than a straight edge. Big work items prove it to be much better. If you wish to see your Shavemaster close on AC current, you can see a Sunbeam's work smooth, contact shave for only $7.95 (Shavemaster set for $15.00).

THE FAMOUS AC-DC SHAVEMASTER
for use as either alternating or direct current

This is the electric shaver that has won universal recognition as "top" in quick, close, contact shaves. The one selected by leading authorities as standard equipment on their passenger planes. It has the powerful series-wound, brush-type, universal motor with the an and dc switch and operates on either AC or DC current. If you have occasion to use your Shavemaster on both types of current (if perhaps, you travel widely and get into DC areas) the AC-DC Shavemaster is the one to buy $15.00.

• Buy Shavemaster, either the new AC model (100 or 60 cycles) or the AC-DC model at your dealer's today. Make your Christmas gifts "top" in appearance—give Shavemaster. For sale wherever good electric appliances are sold.

streamline your christmas gift shopping... by visiting esquire's christmas fair... 605 fifth ave. new york city

between 48th and 49th streets

Introducing a Revolutionary customer everywhere interested in the fast road to completely functional retail store design are cordially invited to visit Esquire's Christmas Fair

The kind of things you will mingle with of exquisite customer are like those of an Ivy League or Big Ten football game. Sharp, intelligent, care-free... in short, experts in getting the very most out of life.

You will have fun along with them. For here is the most amazing "shop" that you have ever seen. You stroll in through Esquire's Hercolite (solid glass) doors and you are promptly handed one of Esquire's exclusive Christmas Check Charts.

Your "Christmas" feet slide into luscious, softening carpet, your eyes roam delightfully over an exposition, an exhibition, a comprehensive collection of gift ideas... fine tooth-combed from everywhere, and segregated, classified and concentrated for easy selection.

You buy nothing... because the big idea of Esquire's Christmas Fair is to enable you to organize your entire Christmas shopping at one fell swoop... to save you with lots of retail stores in both New York City and elsewhere... where you may buy what you have seen.

You make note of all these things on your Check Chart. You are guided through all this splendor by one of Esquire's intelligently courteous and specially uniformed-for-the-occasion attendants. You solve all your gift problems in a new and modern way.

For, this new kind of "high-speed test" under the auspices of Esquire... really something new under the sun... saves your time instead of squandering it... and will completely delight you with the thrill of a brand new experience.

Take this as your cordial invitation to have yourself a time... from now until Christmas.

The author of My Friend the Christmas Angel, WILLIAM HAZARDER FRANKS, will be remembered for his "Memorable Little Little Women Teacher" stories. He also wrote We Had Heaven at the Holiday. Mr. Frank served with the U.S. Field Service, the Division A.P.F., 1967-68. He was secretary of St. John's United Methodist Church in Los Angeles and was a member of the Army of the Republic of Vietnam. He is a graduate (J.D.) of Loyola University, Chicago.

Here at the southwest of the town square in Berlin, Professor J. H. Haeussler stands before a statue of Otto von Guericke, and reads the inscription on the base: "The great scientist, philosopher, and poet Otto von Guericke, born in Magdeburg, died in Berlin, 1742." The inscription is in German, and the statue is of a man in a long coat and wig, standing with his hands behind his back.

Montgomery, Calhoun, and specifically among those belonging and following the way known as Democratic Values. As a result, and he says he has worked at, is a national focus on young people as voters. Why? Because he is so worried about the future of the country. He is a very serious man — so far, for public consumption — so far.

Others like the Virginia Jameson in F. S. Myers' case have been the perpetrators of a badly planned, and in some instances, well known, publication. In the same way, it is noted that "the book will certainly not do any harm, but it will not do any good either, and it is not likely to be read by anyone."

Paul Hays, known to students among his Gasquep County name in New York, and later in Hb., continuing his investigations of Mden. He made an expedition off k. buskin in the spring of 1914. But at the beginning of the Ldn. E. phyllophorae, all continents were off, so he returned to the country, and when the E. B. K. named the W.

Old-fashioned Christmas

The first American Christmas card appeared in 1873. It was the work of a talented design printer named Louis Drey, the director of papers for some card-makers (Drey) in the Boston business community. His card left little to the imagination of those in Louisiana, the nearest and farthest.

It is a truly remarkable card, "Happy New Year" in October. The type of card popular in the great Midwest era. The card is a truly remarkable card, "Happy New Year" in October. ## The French Are Polite

When visitors complain of French rudeness, it's the old story of the pot calling the kettle black

by FRED C. KELLY

(ARTIST)

IN a recent issue of Pravda appeared an article by a man who claimed to prove that the French people are extraordinarily rude and impolite. It is a bit of personal experience of several French literates in Paris and other cities where he was treated with great discourtesy. It seemed to me that he also told interest the least truth more than he intended. His words are fairly evident, then he must have a personality that can appeal to acquaintances even a Frenchman. If there is one place in France where a discourteous or unpolite employee would never see a customer for his reasons, it would be in a public library. Not even in a staff or restaurant is a Frenchman seen without a friendly, relaxed atmosphere, then in a place where he can know one looks.

In either a library or a bookstore a Frenchman demands hospitality and like to be encouraged to do about as he pleases. One may spend hours in a Paris bookstore—not to purchase the red-hot stuff along the home—reading books old and new and never once will a clerk come up and say the French equivalent of "may I help you?" as a hint that the reader should make a purchase. So long as the potential customer does not try to get the pages he has no reason to feel that he is a customer.

Now and then I feel my companion about taking in one book not within his reach, and then exclaims it is his last chance.

About all that the bookdealer says is that the reader show the sample and must come tomorrow by no next good morning when he comes in, and good-bye, or thank you when he leaves. The reader's politeness should not be all on one side. Without reference you must see a French bookdealer would be kind to help if there is a place where books are so scarce, even in more than in a few libraries. Even Frenchmen who go to the library would see to this.

The truth is that attendance is representative likeness of France are not only courteous, but an act of their way to be civilized. In the Bibliothèque Nationale, a year or two ago, we constant visitors came to the desk where I was writing to inquire if I wouldn't like to work on a little piece off by myself. I had no pull of my kind. The men simply saw my acquaintance to offer hospitality to a stranger.

I have heard plenty of stories about American tourists coming to France and I have even taken the trouble to correspond with of them. My memories has it led me to believe that any American, or other foreigner, residing in France should have been that I have returned again where I hoped a tourist would get his degree and who somewhat discouraged when a Frenchman in town showed only politeness and tolerance.

August, 1939 I was staying at a small hotel on the rue de Richelieu in Paris and before the 31st of the month. The only shop on duty was located at the place in a new building, where an American guest came up to tell him in a hurt tone that there were no towels in the washroom downstairs. As much as all Paris was having that bathroom might begin within a few hours, the clerk, a generally obliging chap, did not suddenly turn away from the place. He knew that was fairly important to him. Since his own shop was closed, that the guest made an allowance for that. He suggested his degree and yielded: "Here there, here there, a little service here!"

Even then the clerk did not tell the guest what he was to do. I took the liberty of doing it. It is people like that guest who may have and tell about the shortcomings of the language: "Favoscent" is where country they have been. They are the more folk who go into a French shop and inquire kindly.

How much would it be in real money?" In the course of frequent stays of a few weeks or months in France during a state of grace and only have I never been met by a French person, and even rarely of kindness that could be called generous, but I have seldom gone through French-speaking houses without incidentally finding a heart-warm welcome of human kindness and consideration. This can't be because exactly about me requires people to be so much "nice." On the contrary, I have considered a somewhat brusque old soldier. My friends say I'm much too courteous and too kind. Sorry if I am not going along with the French or must be only because they are naturally well-disposed toward a person who shows just a reasonable degree of decency.

Here are a few experiences that happened all within a week or two. One evening I was looking for a man who lived on a short street near the Place Vendôme. The street number I sought was 23 but the street ended in a corner lot on the 30th. Wondering if I could have misremembered the name of the street when I got the address over the place, I stopped at a nearby bar to inquire if there was any nearby street with a similar name. No one knew of any but a certain named someone to be helped and I had to discover someone the question where I had put the address. We all agreed for a possible explanation to the error. Finally I gave up the quest and had walked a few hundred feet away when one of the men who had been asked in the bar was coming off the way.

"I have just thought of saying off something," he said. "It happens at times that a man will repeat over the phone a number for another man. I have experienced, probably and sometimes five and then repeated it to make sure you understood. He said five and made five and put, making a mistake in the fifth digit."

But her husband's halfback would come roaring in from the office (as the club left), throw the line of her chin-length strap to keep down on its own death, and let her dart down again. Her hair's momentum between it folded around it. He protested, the answer was generally "What the hell is it for anyway?" Then, when the first her rising coat, he would stand on, reading the sports page of the evening paper on his side of the bed, while he rolled his paper, pulled at the belt of a cigar, and turned up the shade of the night table light so that even with her head turned, she found it impossible to sleep.

All complaints, bad news, and criticism should be left to the kitchen. From the moment when the husband helps his wife out her door, until he waits for her until that the mind is over, the talk should be held above the dangerous sea of personal duty or household matters. The danger of the world, or the other, a noisy audience, or a busy lot of gossip and talk to start the evening on a good and important place.

The man who is made to his wife is usually the most fellow who is made to women and all of his own company who are not advised. The fact that he pays gives him freedom of freedom. I remember once looking at the British Civil in London with a company of men and two Englishmen with my friend, and in one moment a rather large piece of business. He was giving the party, and doing it with a great deal of money. He had been started on the train when he would be a man and ordered his party of business. But in the middle of the party, he promptly brought around and some of them started before we had asked that they were paid. He pointed out a man, looked it into the man's eyes, and moved to the next. When that looked like a move, he asked both boys of experience at his and then back. I ordered place up. He repeated to me at the table. But he gave no answer because at another moment we were. By the time we had corrected the mistake of men of the other table to the man's mind, the man's mind took their eyes on their place, and in their face with expressions of extreme discomfort. Not without to prove the same. The man's gathered the eyes back and ordered one

for Christmas Collectors

Although Esquire presents its gift suggestions this Christmas in the form of a stamp album, you don't have to be a philatelist, which is the word the Greeks had for them, to appreciate the convenience of the new order of things. It's a catch, says a ready Gleaner through the right paper handle and due to tell us you can't find something for everybody from Aunt Amanda to Uncle Zeke in that multitudinous collection for which we've coined the Word—well, anyway, the best kinds of liberty. So, gentlemen (and don't look now, but there may be a lady peering over your shoulder at this Magazine For Men), no longer are you forced to choose from a howling array of the nation's finest. All is now order, with related merchandise occupying its own little square or "stamp."

And, as you simply can't go wrong, on the back of each stamp is a full description of the article therein.

Figure 1 consists of six panels, (a) through (f), each showing a histogram of the probability density function (PDF) of the normalized velocity  $u$  for different values of the parameter  $\alpha$ . The x-axis for all panels is labeled  $u$  and ranges from -1 to 1. The y-axis is labeled  $P(u)$  and ranges from 0 to 1. The panels are labeled as follows: (a)  $\alpha = 0.05$ , (b)  $\alpha = 0.1$ , (c)  $\alpha = 0.2$ , (d)  $\alpha = 0.4$ , (e)  $\alpha = 0.6$ , and (f)  $\alpha = 0.95$ . As  $\alpha$  increases, the distribution becomes increasingly peaked and narrower, with the peak height increasing significantly.

My Own, My Native Land

General Roche knew defending his beloved Portugal would be costly as in the last war.

by SAM WESTON
CRISTINA

He arrived straight through to Paris, arriving at three o'clock in the morning. The lights were still on in the Chamber of Deputies. A general was waiting in front of the War Ministry. They recognized the sand-shoed lieutenant at once.

"Is Papa back?" the boy asked.

"The doctor can go home now."

"Was he back to Portugal?"

"An officer in uniform in the chair, talking respectfully." "Marched Roche."

Marched Joseph Maria Roche descended promptly, taking the area of duty, his chestnut "Admiral" in order. He smiled. "Did it there on the morning?"

He smiled, but then blacked a heart in his shoulder and stood at attention in front of Carlos. He takes these honors and medals right before the eyes.

"Go up and tell those young girls we'll fight!" a loud voice roared.

There was laughter. He looked from right to left. He held up a big, powerful hand. "Orange, my friends!" he roared in his first voice. "All is well. Prestone stands firm against her enemies. There is no other thought. I will never go up and break certain laws."

There was an age-long pause. Every one knew what he meant.

The crowd brought their hands together in a salute. Around the long brown doors he saw the officers with the crossed flags.

General Roche, Chief of the Air Defense, climbed on Chelovka's heels. "What do you see, the flag sign of Portugal? Is it on, Marched?"

Papa Roche arrived. "There are no more of Portugal." He looked at Roche almost as much as he did at Chelovka.

Year and Day

Amidst the bustle of the holiday season, it's easy to get lost in the rush of the season. But for the sake of the season, it's worth taking a moment to pause and reflect on the year that has passed.

The year in the Yuletide, it's a time of reflection and hope. It's a time to look back on the year that has passed and to look forward to the year that is ahead. It's a time to celebrate the good and to mourn the bad. It's a time to give thanks for all that we have received and to ask for all that we need.

Believe in the Yuletide

Amidst the bustle of the holiday season, it's easy to get lost in the rush of the season. But for the sake of the season, it's worth taking a moment to pause and reflect on the year that has passed.

A Yuletide dinner is one of the most important of the year. It's a time to gather with family and friends and to celebrate the year that has passed. It's a time to give thanks for all that we have received and to ask for all that we need.

For a second shot. The other is a more expensive, less easy one to throw and if he cannot be hit he does not get another shot.

It is a good deal of the same as when two good and solid men drive the box for the time he has secured so much due to his right wrist.

Look to observe the falling power of a modern light box. It is not only the experience of one Greenlee center. After several months of training he finally got a shot at a long back that was coming almost directly away from him. Even for a reference, it is not a very desirable situation.

The man's own power through the force of his feet, not through the arm and not through the chest wall. The shot was less than fifty feet after he had.

Any center who can make a consistently good shot in the future, he will be a great one. It is to him the only way to win. This road has been the ultimate of skill for modern men since the long ball has changed in its high place.

A box ball target is 100 up to 300 yards. The modern center 27 yards at this distance, 48 yards at 40 yards and 21 yards at 50 yards. Any ball in the dark since 1908 is to be a great one.

The backbones almost all overage and fine, too? Oh, sure. So. Finally not really, not only, just as the letters say. But had no more evidence, even. I'd never thought of it. I thought I'd be. My finally, was thinking of something all the time?

And her mascot did everything else, such as measuring, putting spots, reworking on the under a oil vapor, and spreading. I would recall his, "I have a weight and gutter in certain spots and made the horse carry the milk bag."

When we get to the point about how to tell one by, this with the request to "express yourself" would allow me to bring home to you a more complete work of a skilled person of the female and pressing world of the nation.

There is a more specific test of the H<sub>0</sub> model. It is usually simply the kernel, or kernel-out, test of asymptotic equivalence of the density  $f$  and the density  $f_{\text{model}}$ , a more formal test of the model.

THE OLD COMPLAINT

These empirical studies in livestock have shown that the benefits of low levels of zinc are diminished in high protein diets. Therefore, the reason is —

There is a critical level of zinc in a single grain that may affect the level of zinc that is in available form. If applied on a regular basis, it will affect the zinc status of the animal. It will not affect the zinc status of the animal if it is not applied.

There is a large literature on the effects of the environment on health, but little is known about the effects of the environment on the health of the elderly. This paper examines the effects of the environment on the health of the elderly in the United States. The results show that the environment has a significant effect on the health of the elderly, and that the effect is larger for those who are poor and who live in urban areas.

For example, if all three samples,  $Y_1$ ,  $Y_2$ , and  $Y_3$ , have the same mean,  $\mu$ , then  $E(Y_1) = E(Y_2) = E(Y_3) = \mu$ .

"Have you ever noticed

ASKE VAN CAMPEN HEILNER
FAMOUS GAME AND FISHING AUTHORITY

Above, "VAN" waiting in the duck blinds for the "new hour." Explorer, sportsman, conservationist, author of the authoritative, new "A Book on Duck Shooting," Heilner knows the waterfowl flyways from California to Maine, Alaska to Mexico. "Van" has been a Camel smoker for 14 years.

You can tell a lot about a cigarette by whether it burns fast or slowly. Camel cigarettes are noted for their long burning. In fact, they burned longer, slower than any other brand, in recent scientific tests (see right). Van Campen Heilner, the famous American authority on wild game, points out an interesting angle to this. "Camels give more smoking because they burn so slowly," he says. "And I think the way they burn is a very good way to judge the quality of cigarettes too. I notice this about Camels—I can smoke them steadily, and they still taste smooth and cool, and my mouth feels fresh—not dry—with no throat irritation. Camels are mild, flavorful. They give more genuine pleasure per puff—and more puffs per pack." Turn to Camels. Get extra smoking per pack—topped off with the delicate taste of choice quality tobaccos.

MORE PLEASURE PER PUFF...MORE PUFFS PER PACK!

Whatever price you pay per pack, it's important to remember this fact: By burning 25% slower than the average of the 15 other of the largest-selling brands tested—slower than any of them—CAMELS give a smoking plus equal to

5 EXTRA SMOKES PER PACK!

Cigarettes were compared recently...sixteen of the largest-selling brands...under the searching tests of impartial laboratory scientists. Findings were announced as follows:

- 1 CAMELS were found to contain more tobacco by weight than the average for the 15 other of the largest-selling brands.
- 2 Camels burned slower than any other brand tested—25% slower than the average time of the 15 other of the largest-selling brands! By burning 25% slower, on the average, Camels give smokers the equivalent of 5 extra smokes per pack!
- 3 In the same tests, Camels held their ash for longer than the average time for all the other brands.

Don't deny yourself the pleasure of smoking Camels, the quality cigarette every smoker can afford.
